

A New Way to Sharpen Rotary Cutters

Everyone has this in their kitchen, right? And what has the aluminum foil to do with sharpening rotary cutter blades, you ask?

Well, you simply fold a piece of foil a few times and just slice away with your blunt dull rotary cutter...pausing a few times to test it out on your fabric scraps...till it starts slicing away your fabric too!

You will end up with this and an almost new rotary cutter!