Annual Holiday Party

Our holiday party (a little earlier this year) is scheduled for Tuesday, November 29 at 6:30 p.m. (Please note the earlier starting time.) Our theme for the evening will be COOKIES!!! We will have a special speaker, Carla Zikursh, from the Ohio History Connection. Carla has researched 1950s cookie recipes and will include interesting cookie history in her presentation. And you will get the first look at our very own booklet of cookie recipes from the Westerville Quilt Guild!

The holiday committee will be providing the meat/main course for the party, as well as beverages, so we ask that you bring a side dish or dessert based on the first letter of your last name:

A-G = salad      H-M = side dish      N-Z = dessert (please bring cookies for our theme!)

Wear your holiday finery and bring your latest holiday gifts or quilted decorative items for show and tell!

Westerville Quilt Guild Sale

Thanks to everyone for making our first Westerville Quilt Guild Sale such a success! The bake sale brought in $153 and the quilt sale $1437.29!! Making our grand total $1590.29!! Our first venture using "Square" to accept credit cards went very smoothly with minimal fees. The remaining unsold items were donated to "My Very Own Blanket" to be sold in their new boutique opening November 16. Thanks again to all who donated quilted items or baked goods, worked at the sale or served on the committee.

Spring 2017 Quilt Retreat March 24-26 Cider Mill of Zoar

Good news quilters, at our initial sign up there were nine members who reserved rooms for our retreat in March! This leaves only six beds open for our retreat taking place March 24th through the 26th.

As it stands right now Grace's Room which includes the double bed and private bath is available for $300 for the weekend as are six remaining beds in Abigail's and Chloe's rooms' which are only $230 for the weekend.

I am asking that at least a deposit of $100 per guest be made to reserve your space in this retreat. Final payments to be made NO LATER than our February meeting.

Please feel free to contact me for more info at 614-783-5470 if you have any questions.

Looking forward to seeing you! Abby Miller

WQG Rolling Library

The Rolling Library group would like to thank all of you who have so kindly donated patterns, magazines, and books. The library is full of wonderful resources for every kind of quilt imaginable.

We are happy to continue taking donations, but please limit them to quilting related items only. We just don't have room for all the sewing, upholstery, and other fun items at this time.

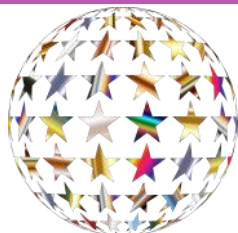

We will have the library list updated before the October meeting and will email it to each of you so that you can peruse the fantastic selection that we have to choose from.

Thanks again, DeeAnn Haworth, Sue Meek, and Marilyn Murray

October Raffle Follow-Up

The Fun with Fabric Committee's October block raffle scored the winner 69 fast nine patch sets (138 blocks)! At the November meeting, any unused tan paisley squares as well as any IOU block sets should be returned to the Fun with Fabric Committee.

Trunk show pictures shown in this newsletter are representative of her nontraditional quilting style. Becky shared that her recent interest in the silk infusion technique may become a spring 2017 workshop in conjunction with the Art Quilt Alliance (www.artquiltalliance.org). Stay tuned for more information in early 2017!
