Subha Lembach, Columbus Museum of Art presents: Columbus Artist Aminah Robinson

Amongst her other works, Aminah was famous for her RagGonNons, embellished fabric creations that document the spiritual essence of her neighborhoods, and of those who lived there. Much of her work is her interpretation of the stories she heard from the elders in her family and her childhood memories. Her RagGonNons can be found at the Columbus Museum of Art, and the National Underground Railway Freedom Center in Cincinnati.

Drawing made with homemade paper and embellished with buttons.

Poindexter Village quilt, a RagGonNon in a private collection.

Marti Michell, Scrap Patchwork & Quilting, defines SCRAP as Selectively Combined Rigorously Assorted Pieces. Join us at the September meeting for SCRAP information and ideas!

Westerville Quilt Guild Quilt Sale — October 15th

We were overwhelmed with your generous donations at the June picnic! Keep those donations coming! Please consider making and donating at least one hand made item for our sale! Items will be collected through the September meeting. Please see Amy Korn or any committee member.

Flyers have been finalized and are available for distribution to area quilt shops and other organizations. Pick up some at the next meeting to share with friends, neighbors and other groups in the area.

We still need a few more bakers for the bake sale portion of our sale. If you would like to help, please contact Marilyn Lundquist (marilyn.lundquist@gmail.com) - or add your name to the sign-up sheet at the August guild meeting.

Holiday Party Planning

Even though it's hotter than blazes, it's never too early to think about our Holiday Party, scheduled for Tuesday, November 29. Our theme this year will be "cookies" and we will have a special speaker focusing on favorite recipes from the 1950's. In addition, we would like to publish a little book (to be distributed at our party) of members' favorite cookie recipes. So please look through your recipe boxes and send a favorite recipe you would like to share. If possible, please e-mail the recipe to: amyokorn@hotmail.com no later than October 1. It doesn't have to be a Christmas cookie recipe - just a family favorite.

Announcing Fun with Fabric Committee's 2nd 2016 Challenge!!

The second challenge is a reversible table runner/topper to be displayed at the October 25th WQG meeting.

You choose fabrics, design, and size. Make one that is a winter holiday on one side and reverses to your favorite sports team on the other. What about pretty summer flowers on the top with a different floral look on the reverse? Or for kids' parties maybe sweet birthday cupcakes on top with creepy crawly lizards on bottom? Be creative! Imagine the possibilities!

Quilter's Retreat

Ready to get out and enjoy working with your fellow friends in fabric? Ready for just a weekend get away with just your sewing machine, notions, and patterns without worry about housekeeping, dishes and meal prep for a few days? How about a weekend get-away? Ready for a quilt retreat?

Mohican State Park Lodge offers a retreat package for groups for three days, including some meals for the rate of $199 per person per double occupancy room. For this to work, we would need the interest of at least 24 attendees for me to investigate further our options with the lodge

Further details can be found here.

<http://www.ohiostateparklodges.com/assets/Two-Night-Retreat.pdf>

For those interested, I will be taking an informal 'raised hand' type of vote at the August meeting.

My idea would be to have this take place sometime in early spring, like March 2017. After the holiday hubbub, but before spring obligations begin.

Thanks, Abby Miller
