Quilting Fun & Games!

Get ready and mark your calendars for the September meeting featuring "Quilting Fun and Games"! First, we will have a "Fat Quarter Gamble". You will need to bring 3 fall themed fat quarters. Then, we will test your skills (and maybe learn a new technique) with "Quilting Survivor Mystery Challenge". So, put on your game face and get ready for a fun night!

Holiday Party Update

Our Christmas party will be held at the regular meeting in November. We ask that you bring mittens, gloves and scarves to be donated to WARM.

The committee will purchase ham, meatballs and rolls. Drinks will include Gail's special blended decaf coffee, Exie's spiced tea and water. As usual you will provide the delicious sides to go with our meal.

For our program we ask that you bring one favorite Quilted Christmas item, large or small. They will be displayed around the room before dinner, so you may enjoy them. Blanket Story Tags will be available at the September and October meetings. There will be a place on the tag for the history of the item; such as who made it, when, what it means to you etc. after dinner those who wish can share their story. Your Blanket Story Tag will help make the presentation flow, in case you dislike public speaking!

We look forward to a fun evening of fellowship.

Today is Johnny Appleseed Day

Johnny Appleseed Day honors one of America's great legends. Johnny Appleseed was a real person. John Chapman was among the American settlers who were captivated by the movement west across the continent. As Johnny Appleseed travelled west, he planted apple trees along the way, and sold trees to settlers. With every apple tree that was planted, the legend grew.

Celebrate today with an apple rich menu. Include fresh apples for snacks, and some applesauce or apple pie for dessert. And, make plans to plant an apple tree.

Jack Apple Pecan Spice Cake

CAKE:

Vegetable oil spray for misting the pan

Flour for dusting the pan

1 package (18.25 ounces) plain spice cake mix

1 cup buttermilk

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup vegetable oil

2 tablespoons Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey

3 large eggs

2 cups finely chopped peeled apples (2 med)

1 cup chopped pecans

GLAZE:

4 tablespoons ($\frac{1}{2}$ stick) butter, melted

2 cups confectioners' sugar, sifted

3 tablespoons Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey

1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

1. Place a rack in the center of the oven and preheat the oven to 350°F. Lightly mist a 13-by 9-inch baking pan with vegetable oil spray, then dust with flour. Shake out the excess flour. Set the pan aside.
2. Place the cake mix, buttermilk, oil, whiskey, and eggs in a large mixing bowl. Blend with an electric mixer on low speed for 1 minute. Stop the mixer and scrape down the sides of the bowl with a rubber spatula. Increase the mixer speed to medium and beat for 2 minutes more, scraping down the sides again if needed. The batter should look thick and well blended. Fold in the apples and pecans. Pour the batter into the prepared pan, smoothing it out with the rubber spatula. Place the pan in the oven.
3. Bake the cake until it is light brown and springs back when lightly pressed with your finger, 40 to 45 minutes. Remove the pan from the oven and place it on a rack to cool while you prepare the glaze.
4. For the glaze, place the melted butter, confectioners' sugar, whiskey, and vanilla in a medium mixing bowl and stir with a wooden spoon until the sugar is dissolved and the glaze is smooth. Spoon the glaze over the warm cake, spreading it out to all sides of the pan. Allow the cake to cool about 30 minutes before cutting it into squares and serving.

Store this cake, covered in aluminum foil, at room temperature for up to 1 week. Or freeze it, wrapped in foil, for up to 6 months. Thaw the cake overnight on the counter before serving.
