Come and be Entertained!

Our program this month features Debbie Clement. Debbie's business card reads "Arts and Entertainment Specialist", and the name of her company is Rainbows Within Reach. Debbie calls Columbus home, but has traveled all over the country and the world, working her magic with children, many of those children with special needs.

Some of you may have seen Debbie at her booth last year at NQA. She has produced several records and one published one book. Her book was illustrated using photos of her pieced fabric "quiltlets." She is currently working on a second book and we'll be among the first to see it.

Come let Debbie entertain you, you'll be glad you did. She will have her CD's and books available for purchase following the meeting.

15th Annual National Quilting Day - March 18th

Saturday, March 18 the bunch of us came together and had one good time. There were 15 of us who got together on National Quilting Day for a morning of demonstrations. We ooh & ahed and talked about perky ones (flying geese that is). We taped quilts to the wall, juggled teddy bears and broke needles. There will be, I predict, geese flying through show-n-tell, as well as craziness and disappearing nine patches extraordinaire. All of these with amazing labels that will add to the enjoyment and value of our quilts. That was all before noon.

The afternoon was when Trish taught us to make Hoito bags. Evy and Elaine kept us laughing. Jayne and pat did a tug-o-war. Check out the proof in our scrapbook. Fight nice girls.

Thanks to all who came and a very special thanks to Trish, Jayne, Mary Jo, Shirley, Ming, Ruth & Jennifer for their demos. Lets do this again!!!

PLEASE REMEMBER TO BRING

F.Y.I.—What do I do with emails to WestervilleQG@smith1028.com?

From time to time I receive emails from people that have searched the web and found our web site, <http://WestervilleQuiltGuild.smith1028.com>. Most of these emails are like the one below — someone looking for help from an experienced quilter in the area. Sometimes they're from someone trying to sell us something that we "just can't live without!" Here's what happens to these emails:

1. Emails from people just looking for help or to connect with other quilters in some way will be handled one of two ways:
  - a. I will forward it to the guild members. After that it's up to you to act upon the email in whatever way you want to! Hit the "Delete" key or respond to the persons email—no obligations, no strings attached!
  - b. I will include it in the newsletter with an email link for you to respond to if you want to — or not! Again, no obligations or strings attached.
2. Emails from people/groups trying to sell the guild or its members something "we just can't live without" — don't worry — I hit the "Delete" key myself! So you won't be receiving any of these forwarded from the WestervilleQG@smith1028.com email address! If you do get something like that from the Guild email address — notify me immediately at my personal email address, smith1028@sbcglobal.net.

If you have any other suggestions, let me know. Thanks!

Lisa Smith

Hi,

I would like to locate an experienced quilter in the Westerville area that I could work one on one with ...for a fee...to finish a quilt I started a few years ago. I was taking lessons from the Quilt shop in Westerville (where the Old Bag of Nails is now located) and then they closed the quilt shop. I only have the backing/basting left to do. The top of the quilt is all hand stitched and I really would like to complete it. I have checked into places like JoAnn Fabrics but unfortunately, you have to start another quilt to get to the backing /basting piece.

Do you know an experienced quilter who would be willing to help me finish this quilt for a fee?

Thanks so much!

Essie George
