New Year's Resolution: Quilt Labels

Karen Lesueur and Becky Dickson (in absentia) will present quilt labels at our January meeting. Why should you put a label on your quilt? Karen will tell you! Come and learn some great tips to make doing your labels easier. Want to use your computer? Learn some ideas for that, too. Bring some of your favorite labels from your own quilts to share with the group. Are you having trouble thinking of a label design for your quilt? Bring it in and Karen and the group will give you some input!

“The Art of Quilting” On PBS March 2007

See inspiring quilt artists at work in their studios. Discover how the boundaries of traditional American quilt making have expanded to an art form that now adorns the walls of exhibit halls and art galleries worldwide.

The Art of Quilting honors America's contemporary art quilters by visiting art quilt exhibitions across the country and through personal interviews with nationally and internationally noted fabric artists.

The program highlights the quilts and artists of Quilt National - a biennial show held for nearly 30 years at the Dairy Barn in Athens, Ohio - the premier exhibition of contemporary art quilts in the country.

The Art of Quilting is made possible by the Alberta Kimball Foundation and by contributions to PBS stations from viewers.

Fabric Donations

My Twig group is making "Memory Boxes" for Children's Hospital - 100 of them for 2007 in fact! A "Memory Box" is given to all parents that lose a child at Children's. They are boxes which are painted, decorated and lined with batting and fabric. The parents put keepsakes in them, locks of hair, photos, etc. If anyone has any fabric from baby quilts or other children's fabrics that you would like to donate I'd be happy to add them to our stash. We do make boxes for teens as well, but it seems like the bulk of them are for younger children. A fat quarter works but has to be pieced together for the larger sized boxes, half yards are even better. Thanks in advance for any donations.
