January 26, 2010 Sherry French & Ruthie Hoover Presidents-of-the-Month WQG's 5th Anniversary

We are at our 5 year anniversary as a guild! This is something to celebrate! We have had a lot of fun, learned, gave to the community, and made new friends!

Let's take a look back and a look forward! In our January meeting, we will celebrate and go on a guided review of

- What we like about our guild;
- What we should keep doing;
- What we could do better (and how to get there);
- What we should start doing, (but never thought to!);
- And celebrate!

Face it, quilters are a creative bunch! And quilters like to have fun!

So we will combine those two qualities and in our January meeting use a fun, creative, colorful forum to take a look at our guild!

The planning session will be a stress free format that is fun for everyone! And we will celebrate our 5 years!!

Quilter's Green Tips

Recommended by Shannon Bartlett:

Use a thin plastic sheet or a piece of Plexiglas (leftovers from an old or broken picture frame would work great!) Instead of sketching with a pencil, use a dry-erase marker. Lay the plastic over your blocks and draw the quilting designs on the plastic. If you don't like them, wipe them off and try something different until you find the one you like. If you want to keep this design for future reference, you can trace it onto tracing paper. Then simply erase the design when you are done and use the plastic sheet again on your next project.

From: Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting, Churn Dash & Pinwheel #1410, Saturday, January 2, 7:30 am on WOSU TV.

Another way to audition quilting designs — that can then be used to create a marking stencil — is to draw the designs on GLAD Press'n Seal® plastic wrap then stick it onto your quilt. If you like the design you can stick it to a piece of paper and sew through it, the needle stitches will act as perforations allowing you to use the GLAD Press'n Seal® as a template to apply chalk marking to your quilt top. Save it for use another time too!
