Carol Doak - One Quilter's Journey

Our meeting this month will be held at The Young-Budd American Legion Post in Westerville. The address is 393 E. College Street.

Carol's lecture "One Quilter's Journey" is sure to be fun and informative. She will feature over 150 quilts. There will be time for "Q & A" afterwards and a chance to view her quilts. Carol will also have her books available for sale and signature.

In case you haven't heard, 2010 is the last year Carol will do any traveling to local Guilds. We feel fortunate to be on her "farewell" tour. You won't want to miss this meeting. Bring your friends and enjoy this evening with us. There will be a $5 charge at the door for any non-members. Members please wear your WQG Badge for easy identification!

2010 Service Project - ConKerr Cancer

This year our annual service project is to make pillowcases for ConKerr Cancer (www.conkerrcancer.org) which will then be donated to Nationwide Children's Hospital for children with cancer to replace the boring white pillowcases with our colorful, cheery ones.

At the August meeting we will pass out border fabric pre-washed and cut to the correct width. All you have to do is add 3/4 yard of a pre-washed coordinating fabric and return your pillowcase by the October meeting. Your fabric has directions for the pillowcase or you can go to the ConKerr website for directions.

Have fun with the quick and easy project and feel good about what you're doing for some kids having a tough time in life.

Carol Doak Workshop Saturday, August 21 10 AM

You have all now received the cutting instructions for the workshop project and the basic daily agenda and information. Please have everything cut and ready to sew - don't bring irons or boards, I'll have them. If you use a wooden iron/finger press don't forget that!

Our quit time is fluid but I would plan on about 3:00 - 4:00 pm. Remember to bring your lunch, there will be water and soft drinks in the frig.

If anyone has questions please let me know.
